It is believed the distance could be accomplished in from six to seven days. The highest estimated cost is 41,000,000 sterling, and the cost per mile from £7,000 to £8,000, in different localities.

The new gas company attempted to-day to put a bridge across Mission creek, at a point on the line of Channel street, reserved by the State as a canal for vessels to pass through from Mission Bay toward the Mission Dolores. The Superintendent of Streets, Ashby, obtained a warrant, and eight persons were arrested upon it. This evening it appeared as if the Company intended going on with the work. To-night a strong police force is on the ground to prevent it. The object is to enable the Company to lay its pipes direct from their works into the city, instead of by the way of the Mission.

There were sixty-four deaths this week in this city.

The skins were worth $500,000.

The Hamburg and Bremen Insurance Company's agents announce that the Company has ample assets to meet all liabilities and will continue business here. Their losses at the recent fires here and in Virginia City will not, when adjusted, exceed $43,000.

The Fire and Water Committee of the Board of Supervisors is holding a secret session for the purpose of investigating the matter of the recent fire on Market street. They will publish full testimony which will show the greater part of the loss was due to gross incompetency on the part of the officers in charge of the Fire Department at the time.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Close of the Linn County Fair.

ALBANY, Sept 30.—To-day, the fifth and last of the Fair passed off very quietly, nothing whatever transpiring that was anything out of order. Attendance larger than at any previous day during the present fair. Weather cool and fine; no dust.

The main feature of to-day was the big trot, mile heats, best two in three, which transpired at 11 A. M. Entered, "Bob," by Tennant; "Mollie," by Welch; "Minnie," by Basket. Won by "Mollie;" time, 3:03½. Running mile heats, 3 in 6, 1 P. M. Entries, "Clementor," by Porter; "Buckskin," by Gird; the California Norfolk colt "Napa," by Baskett. Won by "Napa;" time, 1:57. The foot race was won by C. Jones, Esq., purse, $10.

Miss Susan B. Anthony is lecturing in the Court House to-night, and Mrs. J. Blakesly Frost is giving Susan B. "Hail Columbia" in the circus tent at the Fair Grounds at this time.

OREGON.

C. C. Kuhn is putting up a new saw mill at Albany, which will cut ten thousand feet per day.

The Corvallis Gazette boasts that twenty dollar pieces are as plenty in Benton county as half dollars were last year.

The total value of property in Wasco county is $1,043,172, but under the law which allows indebtedness to be deducted, $780,000 of it escapes taxation.

A meeting is called at Eugene City to make preparations for celebrating the arrival of the "first train" at that place. The cars will reach there within ten days.

Ben Simpson has closed a contract to deliver freight for the new light house at Cape Foulweather, amounting to 1,800 tons. Most of it will come from San Francisco.

From the Eugene Journal: A very deep interest has been awakened in this community, during the past two weeks on the subject of religion. Much good ought to be the result.

The Statesman says that the country trade of Salem is more considerable than ever before. This is proof that it has not been diminished by building railroads and establishing stations.

The Yamhill paper says that the farmers of that county are now all out of debt. Some of them had been forced to mortgage their farms, but the advance in wheat has enabled them to clear off their liabilities.

The Roseburg paper learns from the Land Office at that place that the amount of lands selected by the Railroad Company from a point near Harrisburg on the north, to Canyonville on the south, is 262,030 acres, of which 235,441 acres are within the limits of twenty miles, and 26,589 are within the indemnity limits.

The Albany Register has this irreverent allusion to one of the Supreme Court Judges: Since Snow Flake became the property of Andrew Jackson Thayer, present Judge of this Judicial District, she seems to have lost her vim, and the boys now say that this beautiful animal can be beaten by the commonest cayuse in Linn county. The Judge isn't half so "child like and bland" since Wednesday's defeat, and begins to doubt whether "the boys" are really his friends or have been playing him for a grouse.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Olympia Tribune complains that, "in the Eastern States California and Oregon get the credit for our fine qualities of wool."

The Vancouver Register calls the Portland Herald "a falsifier," and says it "seems to take a delight in misrepresenting everything pertaining to Clarke county or its citizens."

The Boise Statesman says: "The abandoned works of the artesian well boring company stand in the Public Square, an unsightly monument of failure on the part of somebody."

It is stated that delegate Garfielde, of Washington Territory, through a bronchial affection from which he has long suffered, has lost the command of his voice and cannot speak much above a whisper.

Journalistic amenities at Olympia are improving. The Echo, temperance organ, calls one of its hebdomadal neighbors who don't agree with it on the liquor question, "Our mahogany-faced contemporary down street."

Almost the entire Yakima valley is now taken and settlers are now seeking homes farther east. Kititass valley now contains about one hundred and fifty farms under cultivation. Four years since there were only three farms within twenty-five miles.

The Avalanche says that the sports at Owyhee a few days ago were set agog with excitement by a bet between two of the fraternity while playing single handed poker. They blinded, straddled, straddled back, drew, bet, raised, went better, and so on, until they got $3,000 in the pot. Four kings took the money. The losing hand was an eight full.

It seems that the official survey of the boundary line between Idaho and Utah, recently ordered by Government is completed. We have not yet been informed of the details. The Corinne Reporter however, informs us that "It turns out that a large number of the towns heretofore supposed to be in Utah, are within the limits of Idaho. Some thousands of the faithful are thus transferred to the Gentiles above us for such action as the nature of the case may suggest."

The Republican papers of California are roasting Parson Fitzgerald, candidate for Superintendent of Public Schools, as an ingrained rebel, who has tried to throw the schools of the State under secession influences. The Union thinks his opponent, Bolander, will be elected by a larger majority than Booth received. The point is also made against Fitzgerald that he was in favor of having a separate fund set off for the benefit of Catholics, to be used according to their peculiar sectarian notions.

Robt. B. Roosevelt is reported to have devised a plan whereby the corrupt influences of Mayor Hall's dishonest election inspectors can be nullified. The plan has not been made known yet, but will probably be announced after the Democratic State Convention.

J. H. Kayser has issued a card asking the public not to pass too heavy judgment on his accounts. The work will be found to embrace a period of two years and a half. He says nearly all the work was furnished to the Croton Board for the sewers, lamp and gas departments.

The meeting of the park laborers announced to take place this evening proved a fizzle, as not more than a couple of dozen attended. Platoons of police were present, but their services were not required. They left early.

The Times says that whatever is effectually done for reform in New York must be done in co-operation with Democrats. The miserable spectacle offered by the Republican Convention at Syracuse is a warning not to rely on that organization alone, if we can even rely upon it at all.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Tammany delegates to the Rochester Convention were elected in this city to-night. The list is made up mainly of Tammany office holders, but neither Tweed, Hall, Sweeney or Connolly are of the number.

Commercial Affairs.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Exports to-day were $613,000; for the week, $4,530,000. The bank statement is moderately favorable; specie has increased $3,500,000.

Fire at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—A terrible conflagration occurred here this afternoon, destroying the immense warehouse on the track of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, near Sixteenth street, with the contents, consisting of about $850,000 worth of produce and merchandise of various kinds stored therein and belonging to some two hundred merchants of the city. One man is known to have been burned to death. Three others are missing, who when last seen were in the midst of the flames, where it seemed impossible to escape. The Government bonded warehouse adjoining, containing $3,000,000 worth of goods, narrowly escaped destruction. Loss by the building is $50,000, fully insured. Aggregate insurance on goods burned is $750,000.

Riot at Danville, Va.

RICHMOND, Sept. 30.—A special to the Enquirer says a riot occurred this evening at Danville, from an attempt of a mob of negroes to rescue a negro from arrest. After futile efforts on the part of the Mayor to disperse the mob, the military were called out, and the riot act read twice. Stones being thrown at the Mayor, the military were ordered to charge bayonets on the mob. One of the most turbulent of the rioters was bayonetted and a policeman was shot by some unknown person. There is great excitement; stores are closed and people have been ordered to their houses.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—A telegram announces the death of G. H. Mumford, Sr., attorney for the Western Union Telegraph Co., at Rochester, N. Y. He was father of George H. Mumford, Jr., the late telegraph manager on this coast.

The following dispatch was received yesterday: "FORT MOHAVE, Arizona, Sept. 16, 1871.—The surveyors of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, on the 35th parallel, from St. Louis, are within 50 miles of the Colorado on the east, and my party is within 70 miles of the same point on the west.

O. N. Evans, of Brooklyn, Alameda Co., fell dead, from bursting a blood vessel, as he was entering a house on Bagley Place, near Market street, yesterday.

Don Francisco Casanova, an old resident of San Francisco, is appointed consul general of Chili for the Pacific States.

Alfred Moulin, the irrepressible criminal who had been vexing the courts for years and has been a constant source of annoyance to the bar and bench, has been fined $500 by Judge Stanley for contempt, in presenting a libelous and untruthful petition some weeks since, which was taken from him, and burned by order of the Judge at that time. In default of the coin he is to serve 250 days in jail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Weather extremely hot. This has been the warmest day of the season.

Arrived—Brig Olga, from Petropaulaski; furs to Hutchinson, Kohl & Co.

It is believed that the report of the Committee of the Board of Supervisors on the great fire on Market street, will necessitate some changes in the management of the Fire Department.

It is strongly surmised that Gen. Grant has in view a flying and informal visit to California before returning to Washington. Measures have been taken to obtain early information of his coming, if such is the case.

Injunction has been served on the new City Gas Company to prevent the building of the proposed bridge across Channel street, and all is now quiet on Mission Creek.

Wreck of a British Ship.

ARIZONA.

Depredations by Outlaws.

The Arizona (Prescott) Miner of September 23d, publishes a letter dated Augua Ciliente, September 17th, which says: Settlers on the lower Gila are preyed upon by Mexican outlaws from Sonora with impunity. The settlements are robbed of horses and cattle and the citizens are killed on American soil. Government protection should be extended to put an end to this guerrillian war. Hundreds of Texan cattle have been stolen from drovers coming this route this summer. Four whites and seven Mexicans are known to have been murdered during the past few months, and thousands of dollars' worth of property lost.

Since my advent into the Territory, eleven years ago, I never felt life and property so much endangered by Apaches as they are by the Mexicans at present.

Gen. Crook is at Fort Whipple. Capt. Henry is operating against the Apaches. He has fifty Mexican scouts and thirty friendly Indians.

Vincent Colyer has left Camp Apache and will soon arrive at Prescott.

Offenders Held to Answer.

ALBANY, Oct. 1.—George W. Sato, the man who shot Jack Hogan on the Fair grounds last Thursday evening, has been bound over to appear at the coming term of the Circuit Court in $2,000 bonds. Also John Baines for passing counterfeit money was bound over to appear at the same term in $2,000 bonds.

An Ohio Congressman writes to the New York Tribune that Ohio will certainly go Republican, but he thinks by a smaller majority than some are counting on. He says some suppose that the Democrats are so disgusted with the new departure and the disclosures of Tammany rascality that many will stay away from the polls, but he never knew Republicans to carry elections by the failure of Democrats to vote. Even if the supreme and recognized leaders of their party, the Tammany thieves, are sent to the Penitentiary, he thinks it would make no difference. "I am confident," so the letter closes, "that you will see not a vote lost to them owing to so immaterial a consideration as that they may have lost their leaders at the Penitentiary and their principles at Appomattox."

It is thought by many in California that Sargent has a clear field for the U. S. Senate, independent of all cliques or combinations. No man is more deserving, and the Republican party will be honored by his selection, as men of both parties irrespective of politics, consider Sargent a noble, worthy and competent man in every respect for this important and high position.

Educational Effort.

Very important results for the cause of education are reported from the management of the Peabody fund for the Southern States. This fund is so administered as to help those who are disposed to help themselves. When a community desiring assistance for schools apply for it to the directors of the fund they are notified on what terms they can have it. By these terms they are required to raise a certain stated sum in proportion to the number of children to receive instruction, and to this sum there is then added a specified amount out of the educational fund. For example, a community having five hundred young persons to be instructed, are informed that on condition of their raising five thousand dollars, three thousand more will be added to it. This acts as a great incentive to educational effort, and the result is the rapid multiplying of free schools in a section where the very name of the free school system has always been bitterly hated.

It is suggested that a national system of education might be founded on this idea, which would have the effect of stimulating educational effort throughout the entire Union, and of assisting that effort wherever put forth. By holding out a promise of assistance in proportion to the effort made in all parts of the Union, a strong inducement would be afforded to all localities to do their best. The fund could be supported by a general tax, and all parts of the country would hasten to avail themselves of the offer of assistance in order that other localities might not obtain the whole benefit of a fund that belonged and was derived from a tax upon all. Probably no stronger incentive than would be afforded by a system of this sort could be devised, and it has been suggested that in case the Government shall see fit to take hold of the subject of education this idea might be profitably acted upon.

The Political Outlook.

The New York Herald of September 19th, in a long article on "the Tammany entanglement and its bearings on the approaching Presidential contest," says:

> As a great central political power in State and national affairs Tammany Hall is under a gloomy eclipse, and the prestige and the glory of the Wigwam have departed. It was but yesterday that Tammany, like Cæsar, seemed strong enough to stand against the world; "and now there are none so poor to do her reverence." She was the impregnable citadel and base of operations of the Democratic party of the city, the State and the Union; but she is the stumbling block to the party in the city, in the State and throughout the country. The astounding and unanswered accusations raised against her, of fraudulent appropriations of the public funds, have operated to weaken the Democracy in the late elections in Maine and California, and will doubtless operate to strengthen the Republicans in the coming October elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio, and will almost certainly revolutionize the Legislature of New York in November.

The article closes with this paragraph:

> From the shape that this Tammany imbroglio has now assumed, and from the general drift of the public opinion of the country against the Democratic party identified with Tammany, as it now stands, only in some such new departure as this can there be even a respectable fight made against the re-election of General Grant. On the other hand, in the new departure of a new party organization there is still time enough for action, and there are still floating materials enough from which, with the debris of the Democratic party, to form a powerful opposition party for 1872. The Democratic Union party might do for a name, and the principles suggested by Chief Justice Chase, with the Chief Justice or some such universally acceptable man as standard bearer, would serve very well for the initial platform of this new party movement. Otherwise General Grant will walk over the course in 1872, and a scrub race will inaugurate a new organization of parties in 1876.

A Book "for the Season."

In the official report on the finances of the United States for the year 1870, pages 274 and 275, there is a tabular statement giving an exhibit of the annual expenditures of the General Government from the time it went into operation in 1789 down to the close of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1870. This table has been embodied in every annual report on the finances for several years,—being brought down in each case to the end of the fiscal year to which the report pertains. Unfortunately our neighbor of the Herald knows nothing of this report; he has no copies of it, and he even goes so far as doubting its existence. This is the more to be regretted, since the want of it has led him into many grave errors, of late, and has put him to the trouble of writing many columns whose principal statements have been very incorrect. Now we happen to have two or three extra copies of a volume labelled on the back, "Finance Report, 1870;" and in order that our neighbor may see by consulting it at the pages indicated, where and how he has erred in respect to the expenses of Mr. Buchanan's administration we shall try and get a copy into his hands, if possible. It will be quite valuable to him for reference in many things, and, as he is fond of writing about financial matters and drawing out long strings of figures, it will, if honestly consulted, and closely followed, keep him out of many errors.

> While the OREGONIAN is enjoying the city printing at more than twice the amount for which the Herald offered to do the same work, it is distressed to think that the Litigant Law gives us a reasonable price for our work.—Herald.

Here's coolness! The OREGONIAN is "enjoying the city printing," is it, when all the better portion of it is done by yourself, under the "Litigant Act," as your large bills, exceeding ours twice over, paid almost weekly by the Common Council, will testify? And the price you get under the "Litigant Act" is "reasonable," too, when it is notorious that you charge and collect more for inserting a "litigant" advertisement once a week than you can get for inserting an ordinary business advertisement, occupying equal space, six times a week! One thing is evident,—our neighbor is economical of truth even to parsimony, if he is extravagant in his charges under the Litigant bill.

The other day the Democratic organ here had this, which it thought was remarkably clever:

> "The latest news is, that there has been no new development of stealing by Radical office-holders within the last twenty-four hours."

Just see how handsomely the Dallas Republican replies to it:

> Just so, Mr. Herald. The fact is, the great mass of stealings of Radical office-holders that have been developed have sprung from the fertile brains of Democratic quill drivers, and the late elections prove that the people so understand them.

For several days the Herald has said nothing about the tariff on "razors." The eloquent razor strop has probably left town, and the organ has no more of his speeches to work up into editorials.

Chief Justice Chase's private Secretary, Mr. J. W. Schuckers, is preparing a history of the financial administration of the Government from the beginning.

Great Enterprise in Southern Oregon.

A letter from Southern Oregon to the San Francisco Bulletin states that the practicability and advantages of irrigation will shortly be tried on a great scale in the Klamath country. We quote:

> Jesse D. Carr has made a contract with Jesse Applegate to cut a ditch or canal from Lost river through Klamath Valley into Klamath river, a distance of ten miles, at a cost of $50,000. This ditch will tap Lost river at the gap of Klamath Valley and drain Tule Lake, into which Lost river empties itself, and thereby drain at least 350,000 acres of what is now known as swamp land, and with the water of this lake and river, irrigate, through the medium of this ditch, the Klamath Valley on the eastern side of Klamath river, bringing at least 350,000 acres more to yield from five to ten times the grass that it does at present, or, what is more like, convert the whole valley into wheat fields that will vie with the Umpqua or Rogue River Valleys in productiveness.
>
> Mr. Carr has the capital and enterprise, and Mr. Applegate has the brain and experience to accomplish the work.
>
> The value of this work as a precedent and encouragement to other capitalists to go and do likewise, will be invaluable to the district and to the State. It will be literally turning the wilderness into a fruit field. The land will cost Mr. Carr not more than $975,000. The ditch and other improvements will cost $100,000, making in all $1,075,000. In three years, when the Oregon Railroad reaches the Klamath Lake Valley, there 700,000 acres of drained and irrigated lands will be worth at least $5 per acre, making a total of $3,500,000; giving him a clear profit on his investment of $2,425,000.
>
> This will appear fabulous to many, but I have been on the ground, examined it carefully, and the facts will sustain my conclusions. The land will cost Mr. Carr $1 25 per acre, and he will have ten years to pay for the 350,000 acres of swamp land.
>
> A company is being organized, to cut a ditch from Klamath Lake down the west side of Link river, that will irrigate the entire portion of Klamath Valley on the west side of Klamath river—a portion of the valley twenty miles long by five miles broad. The same company intend lowering the bar a few feet at the entrance of Lake river, out of Klamath Lake, that will drain many thousands of acres of swamp lands along the margin of Klamath Lake that are now useless, but when drained will raise grass, hay, wheat and barley equal to any in the State.

Railway Aid.

A short time ago Walla Walla voted down a proposition to aid a railway, the ground being taken by many citizens that the proposition was not brought forward in a suitable shape. But it is stated that in case a proposition is made in an acceptable shape, aid will be given. Following is a portion of a letter received by Colonel Chapman of this city from Dr. D. S. Baker of Walla Walla:

> We are very much gratified at the movement of opening the Columbia river (by building a portage around the Cascades) to competition. Hope your efforts will succeed, and extend to portages around the Dalles also. We feel it to be of much importance to every interest to this country that we should have competing lines on the Columbia river, and think substantial aid, when a practical plan is suggested, to a limited amount, may be obtained from this side of the mountains.

Nothing like being cheerful. Here comes the Democratic paper at Oregon City with an article claiming that its party will almost certainly carry the Presidential election next year. And what is more, tables of the electoral vote of the several states are presented to prove it. Only ten States with 64 electoral votes are given to the Republicans. The same genius makes these calculations who from time to time presents "figures" on "Radical extravagance" in the National Government.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Galveston (Texas) Bulletin says it is convinced that negro juries convict in criminal cases as often as white juries do, and that it sees no leniency to people of their own color.

Some of the Southern papers are very anxious that their readers should realize that a Democratic victory in 1872 is more important than a Democratic platform. Give them the power, and then—

The Chicago Post says Mr. Chase declares to all callers that he is not a candidate for any office, and that he especially avows with much emphasis that he is not a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency. Which, perhaps, "depends."

A comparison between Democratic extravagance and Republican economy, shows that the expenses for one year of maintaining four courts in the city of New York, under Democratic rule, is $661,500. For the same length of time, the cost of maintaining eighty-two Judges of the United States Courts, twelve Foreign Ministers, the President and Cabinet of the United States, and the Governors of thirty-one States, is $673,583, being only $12,083 more than is required to run four Courts in New York, under Democratic management.

CURRENT NOTES.

The receipts of the California State Fair, held at Sacramento two weeks ago, were $19,941, a gain of $1,859 over those of the preceding year.

The Chronicle foots up losses by the recent fire at San Francisco at $921,000. The insurance was $522,500. This is the heaviest loss by fire which that city has experienced since 1851.

Alexander H. Stephens, in one of his last three-column editorial paragraphs, says that the "key note" which was sounded in Ohio by Vallandigham, has lost California to the Democracy, and is losing the other States as fast as possible.

The Boston Gazette has traced a well-known scrap of popular slang to an exceedingly classical origin—as may be seen in the two lines subjoined, from "Titus Andronicus," in which play Marcus Andronicus says:

> "Be candidatus, then, and put it on,

It costs seven hundred millions of dollars annually to keep the peace of Europe, and three hundred millions more to preserve order in the rest of the world. More than half the money raised by taxes in the world goes for military purposes. And the worst of it is, the very armies and navies maintained by such frightful expense to preserve peace are a constant temptation and incitement to war.

The Schemes of Napoleon.

A London letter (Sept. 2) to the New York Evening Mail gives these interesting paragraphs:

> Although it is understood that the Emperor Napoleon has abandoned all idea of again occupying the position of chief ruler of the French nation, I believe he confidently anticipates that the time will come when his son will ascend the Imperial throne. This being his faith, he naturally regards with considerable approval the prolongation of the Thiers interregnum. M. Thiers is an old man and his ambition, great as it is, must necessarily be content with a comparatively brief enjoyment of supreme power. He has no children and therefore his authority must die with him. There was one thing which the Emperor had reason to dread, and that was an early appeal to universal suffrage. He claims to have derived his sovereignty from the nation; and again and again he has admitted that the same power which made can unmake his title. So long as the election of a permanent government is delayed, so long will the Bonapartists have time to intrigue for a restoration. The Emperor's friends are active; but they exhibit more discretion than they did when they took to pamphleteering, and to issuing manifestoes which invited sharp criticism, especially as the events to which they referred were painfully fresh in the public recollection. In their case the German maxim—"silence is golden"—holds strictly true.
>
> But there is one thing which Louis Napoleon is about to do that reflects great credit on his sagacity. He proposes—so at least it is said, apparently on authority—to make a tour which will embrace visits to several of our principal provincial towns. Ostensibly he will be merely doing what the Emperor of Brazil and the Grand Duke Constantine have recently done—making himself acquainted with the industrial centres of the kingdom, and with those great manufacturing interests upon which the prosperity of Great Britain mainly depends. Could an exiled monarch make a better use of his time? While the National Assembly at Versailles is engaged in perpetual wranglings; while M. Thiers, owing to his inordinate vanity, is quarreling in turn with every party in the State; while the French people are groaning beneath the weight of the enormous burdens which the continuance of the war after Sedan entailed upon them, he is quietly inspecting the workshops of England, and thus suggesting to the essentially sordid minds of the bourgeoise how much better off they could be under the regime of a man who would look well after their material interests. Nor need the Emperor feel the least apprehension as to his reception. The average commercial Englishman cares little for continental politics, and if he did the remembrance of the coup d'etat is now blotted out by the most sanguinary massacres which the new Party of Order have perpetrated in Paris. Besides, an English crowd—and in this I suppose its conduct is hardly exceptional—cheers everybody. Napoleon will be cheered just as Garibaldi was—with a difference undoubtedly; but across the channel it will appear that England has strong Bonapartist sympathies. Sympathy is electrical, and once more the shopkeeper will sigh for the prosperity which they enjoyed under the empire, and the peasantry will cry aloud for their "poor Emperor." I do not give these as my own views, because, after doing my best to form an accurate judgment, my own opinion is that, if the plebiscite be delayed long enough, the Republic is hardly likely to give place to a new gingerbread imperial throne, or even to another monarch of July. But that these are the calculations of Napoleonic dreamers cannot be doubted, and, as I have already said, they assuredly exhibit more wisdom than the Emperor's wretched pamphlets or than the Duc de Gramon's elaborate attempt to fasten the whole responsibility of the war upon Prince Bismarck.

History of Church Pews.

Concerning pews, Dr. Doran tells us that they were first placed in English churches by the Norman nobles, but it is certain that, for many generations, these private boxes for public worship were neither numerous nor allowed to persons of inferior grade or gentility. Even to the close of the Plantagenet period, Christians of all degrees, save the highest, were content to be equal in the house of God, so far as seats were concerned.

Mirk's "Instructions for Parish Priests" makes no mention of pews, and enjoins the laity, when in church, to remain on their knees, and abstain from leaning against pillars and walls; but the "Book of Nature," by Russell, "sum tyme wythe Duke Vmfrey, of Gloucester," a work which like the "Instructions," was published in the first half of the fifteenth century—directs the chamberlain of a great man to take due care for the arrangement of his patron's pew:

> "Prince or prelate if he be, or any other potentate,
> E'er he entered into the church be it early or late,
> Perceiving all thynges for his pew, that it be made pre-
> parate;
> Both cushion, carpet, and curtain, beads and book, forget not that."

But though pews were introduced before the Reformation, they were reserved even so late as the opening of Elizabeth's reign for persons of undeniable quality. Before the close of her majesty's life, however, they had become comparatively common; and in James the First's time, the churchwarden's pew of St. Margaret's church had become so unclean and populous with fleas, that sixpence was paid for its purification. The seventh century, which witnessed so many changes in ecclesiastical matters, saw pews come into such vogue that a modish person would as soon have gone to church without his proper garniture of point lace as have sat out a service on the old fashioned stool or modern bench. "Stately pews," remarked Bishop Corbett, protesting against the innovation by which worshippers in velvet protected their gentility from personal contact with worshipers in homespun, "are now becoming tabernacles, with rings and curtains to them. There wants nothing but beds to hear the word of God on. We have casements, locks, keys, and cushions—I had almost said bolsters and pillows; and for these we love the church! I will not guess what is done to them who sit, stand, or lie asleep at prayers, communion, etc.; but this I dare say—they are either to hide disorder, or proclaim pride.—London Athenæum.

JOSH BILLINGS ON FREE LOVE.—I beleaf in free fight, especially amung cats and dogs.

I beleaf in free rides—on a gate.

But free love is one ov those kinds of fredum that it don't do to limber with.

If this world was a garden of Edin and full ov Adam and Eve, az they was when they was fust launched, then I kan imagine it might do for some other Adam to hold my Eve on his lap, and talk about his affinitech and spitoal essence, and play lamb.

In them daze, there want no humin natur, it was all God natur.

Humin natur has bin soaked so much since, it is tew weak in a lot where the seed is poor, next to a meddo, without much fence between nor enny poke on.

Free love wants more poke than any other animal.

Free love is a good deal like drinking a six shilling gin for a bevridge. Bevridge is a Chinese word and means onsiduess.

All the free love i have witnessed thus far, has existed between a villanious letcher on one side, and lunatic virtue on the other side, that has been deodorized out of its truth, and had lost aul of its modesty and shame, in hunting after a condishun where sin ceased to be a crime.

The fust free lover we have enny akount ov was the devil.

REMARKABLE CURE OF MRS. HOOVER.

TUALATIN PLAINS, WASHINGTON CO., OREGON,
July 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a LARGE BONY SWELLING grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last spring I have been taking your "Oak Wood Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder and THE BONY GROWTH HAS ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED and I use my limbs and am far better than I have been for years.

TO HOUSE BUILDERS & PAINTERS

"AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINTS."

THESE PAINTS ARE SO WELL KNOWN throughout the Atlantic States and their reputation so abundantly established for

Beauty, Permanence and Economy

That we can confidently recommend and guarantee an entire satisfaction in their use.

THEIR COST is less than pure leads, and covers one fifth more surface; making them the most economical Paints in the market.

THEIR DURABILITY is unquestioned. They dry hard with a smooth and glossy surface and will not chalk, crack or peel off.

THEIR ADAPTABILITY.—They are already mixed and ready for use and require no oil, turpentine or dryers. Are sold of any desired shade, by the gallon only.

Testimonials:

Gen. James S. Negley, M. C., Pittsburg, Pa., writes Nov. 10, '70: I have no hesitation in recommending the "Averill Chemical Paints" to those who regard economy and durability. It weathers our smoky atmosphere better than any Paints I have tested. The colors are rich and variable. Altogether I find them the CHEAPEST AND BEST."

"JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA CUSTOM HOUSE.—It looks as fresh and glossy as when first applied. I do not believe any LEAD AND OIL CAN EQUAL IT.
"WM. E. DOCKRAY."

I have carefully compared the cost and merits of the Averill Paints with White Lead and Oil and find 90 cents per gallon in favor of the former.

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORSHIP.

H. H. PEARSON,

Late of the Russ House,

HAVING BOUGHT THE INTEREST OF MESSRS. Tubbs & Patten, of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, has secured a lease for a term of years of this well known and elegantly furnished Hotel. Its previous reputation assures its being kept in first class style, while in order to keep pace with the times he intends to make important reductions in the scale of charges. His intention is to make it a family and business house, while his large connection with the traveling public, warrants him in expecting a large amount of country, Pacific Coast and Eastern patronage. The prices will range from two to three dollars a day for ordinary accommodation. Board by the week or month as per contract. The Table will be kept on the most liberal scale and many improvements introduced. The spacious reading room is the finest of its kind in the city, while the furniture and fittings generally are superior to those of any hotel in San Francisco. The house will be thoroughly overhauled. Mr. PEARSON assumes proprietorship this day, August 1st.

CHINESE FUNERAL.—Viewed in the light of parade show and noise, the funeral of Lee Sue yesterday, was a happy and successful effort—one which reflected credit upon the management. The women who had tears to shed prepared to shed them, early in the forenoon, and when the shedding time came, they shed—at intervals throughout the day. There was much blubbering, too, among some of the males, but whether blubbers were put in as part of the regular ceremony or as voluntary expressions of grief, on private account, we could not say, on account of our neglected education as to Chinese funeral entertainments. Sam Poey, a bosom friend of the deceased, and withal a partner in the same house, delivered an oration—in blank verse, as near as we could judge—extolling the virtues of the defunct Chinaman, in such terms as his agitation would permit him to use. According to Sam, the deceased was a specimen copy. The priests (or if not priests, what then?), in robes of spotless brown, and blue and so forth, prostrated themselves, and mumbled, poured tea on the ground, burned much paper, manipulated the variety goods spread out on the tables, and as they passed to and fro, looked wistfully upon the roast pigs. The Celestial band beat the symbals and sounded the howgag, till there can be little doubt that the devil took himself away in fright to—some point around the corner, at least. The East Portland band performed several of its jolliest funeral airs, when the procession moved, led the van. Judge McCoy, attorney for the firm of which deceased was a member, gorgeous with various colored sashes, was on the ground and aided greatly to render the ceremonies properly impressive. When, finally, everything had been done that could be devised by heathen and Caucasian ingenuity, to give the dead man a good send off, the metallic coffin, amid the noise of wailing women, howling men and sounding howgag, was lifted into the hearse. The procession being formed, "moved through the principal streets," as is the traditional usage on great occasions, and the dead man was put away to keep till the next vessel for Hong Kong shall sail. The procession was a longer one than has often been seen in this city, and the crowds of people in the street, on housetops and in windows, was greater than we remember to have ever seen in this city except upon occasions of general celebration. The dead man may well feel proud of his funeral.

MISSIONARY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—The exercises at the Taylor street church, yesterday afternoon, were more than ordinarily interesting. Mr. J. K. Gill made the opening address. He stated that he had visited several of the "mission schools" of New York city, and was now more than ever in favor of aiding the mission; half a million of people in New York city are only enabled by this means to know of Jesus; and children—orphans, outcasts, "little wanderers," to a number that would make a procession eight miles long, double-file, three feet apart, were fed, clothed and in some way cared for by the mission. His figures were read from a pamphlet issued by one of the missions, and were very startling in the disclosure of want and wretchedness existing in the great city of New York.

Superintendent J. F. Caples read off the programme, which was very entertaining, consisting of music, compositions, recitations, etc., which were, in the main, rendered in a very creditable manner. Father Wilbur concluded the exercises by a happy address, giving his hearers some of his ideas of what heaven must be when it is considered that near thirty millions of people annually go there—as he estimates. Go to become angels. Children, like the happy boys and girls before him, could surely make heaven a happy place, and he was glad to think he should meet them there. A liberal contribution resulted from passing around the plates. These concerts are a great institution and we hope to see them well sustained. As usual the church was filled to overflowing with people.

ALONG THE RAILROAD LINE.—A Harrisburg correspondent under date September 30th, says: "Business in this town is pronounced by the merchants better than for some years previous. The farmers seem to have plenty of money, wheat being plentiful and selling for a good price. They seem to be much encouraged. The great rain storm lasted for two or three days, wetting the ground to a depth of four or five inches. Although there has not been quite enough, I notice that many farmers are plowing for fall crops. The Harrisburg bridge is now rapidly nearing completion. The force employed numbers about one hundred men, seventy or eighty being employed wholly upon the superstructure. Mr. J. B. Montgomery, the contractor, expects to have the bridge ready for crossing by next Monday [to-day], or without fail, on Tuesday. He is on the ground urging the work forward with all possible energy. If the bridge be ready for crossing on the 2d, the track can be laid to Eugene by the 9th. Ben Holladay is certainly doing this part of the country much good, and the public begin to appreciate it. This place is shipping every day considerable wheat, as are all the stations below, and thus the Railroad Company is beginning to realize something upon its heavy investments."

HEBREW FEAST.—The Feast of the Tabernacles, one of the three great Hebrew festivals, commenced last Friday and will continue for eight days. In the olden time, this feast was celebrated religiously, but it has fallen into somewhat careless observance by most Israelites. It was instituted to preserve the remembrance of God's care for his people when they were in the wilderness and dwelt in tents and booths. The first and last days were held as the most sacred. One of the ceremonies was the waving of fruit and leafy branches toward the four quarters of the earth, and the singing of hosannahs. The dwelling in booths for the first seven days was once obligatory, but this is the practice which has most fallen into disuse. In this city, the Israelites who observe the days at all, do it by simply going to, and sitting in, a booth erected near the Synagogue, for such time as the devotional feeling of each may prompt.

LOCAL FREIGHT TARIFF.—The Oregon & California Railroad Co. has issued a pamphlet containing a local freight tariff which went into effect yesterday. The general directions, rules and conditions as to the shipment of freight, are fully and distinctly stated, together with instructions to freight agents and others. Articles of produce and merchandise are classified in 1st, 2d and 3d rates—with subdivisions of rates—and are charged according to class. Tables of special rates by car load are also given, showing cost of shipment from any station on the road to Portland, and also from one way station to another. These pamphlets, we suppose, will be distributed all along the road for the information both of employees and shippers. The printing was done by Coburn & McCabe, and is one of the handsomest jobs ever turned out here.

GOING TO SALEM.—After a successful and daily increasing practice of six weeks in this city in eye, ear and lung diseases, Dr. Aborn is going to Salem to-morrow to remain about ten or twelve days. The Doctor has testimonials from many persons here on whom he has effected cures. On his return he intends to open rooms permanently in this city.

OVERLAND PASSENGERS.—The following passengers en route for Portland, via Oregon & California Stage Company, passed Yreka on Saturday: C. A. Dolph, Mr. Wingham, L. Stringer, R. G. Reese, E. Epsey, W. Adams.

THE COLORED SCHOOL.—We are requested to say that a public meeting will be held this evening at the Zion A. M. E. Church on Third street to take into consideration the condition of the colored school of this city.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.—Mr. A. B. Richardson on Saturday sold lot 2, block 33, Couch's Addition, for $1,650, and one and one-half acres of land, near East Portland, for $1,100.

THE NATHAN TROUPE.—This dramatic Troupe, having played at Victoria, is coming up the Sound, en route to this city, intending to go to Salem to play during the State Fair.

HORSES SOLD AT AUCTION.—A large number of horses were sold at auction on Saturday by Mr. A. B. Richardson, at prices which were very low for the class of animals sold.

CARGO OF R. R. IRON DUE.—The Alice Graham with a cargo of railroad iron is now out nearly 140 days, and may, therefore, be looked for, at any day.

GAME.—Of late our markets have been pretty well supplied with quail. They are, however, rather costly little chicks.

CONTINUES.—The revival at the Taylor street M. E. Church is still in progress.

Father Wilbur concluded the exercises by a happy address, giving his hearers some of his ideas of what heaven must be when it is considered that near thirty millions of people annually go there—as he estimates. Go [illegible] angels. Children, like the happy boys and girls before him, could surely make heaven a happy place, and he was glad to think he should meet them there. A liberal contribution resulted from passing around the plates. These concerts are a great institution and we hope to see them well sustained. As usual the church was filled to overflowing with people.

ALONG THE RAILROAD LINE.—A Harrisburg correspondent, under date September 30th, says: "Business in this town is pronounced by the merchants better than for some years previous. The farmers appear to have plenty of money, wheat being plentiful and selling for a good price. They seem to be much encouraged. The recent rain storm lasted for two or three days, wetting the ground to a depth of four or five inches. Although there has not been quite enough, I notice that many farmers are plowing for fall crops. The Harrisburg bridge is now rapidly nearing completion. The force employed numbers about one hundred men, seventy or eighty being employed wholly upon the superstructure. Mr. J. B. Montgomery, the contractor, expects to have the bridge ready for crossing by next Monday [to-day], or without fail, on Tuesday. He is on the ground urging the work forward with all possible energy. If the bridge be ready for crossing on the 2d, the track can be laid to Eugene by the 9th. Ben Holladay is certainly doing this part of the country much good, and the public seems to appreciate it. This place is shipping every day considerable wheat, as are all the stations below, and thus the Railroad Company is beginning to realize something upon its heavy investments."

HEBREW FEAST.—The Feast of the Tabernacles, one of the three great Hebrew festivals, commenced last Friday and will continue for eight days. In the olden time, this feast was celebrated religiously, but it has fallen into somewhat careless observance by most Israelites. It was instituted to preserve the remembrance of God's care for his people when they were in the wilderness and dwelt in tents and booths. The first and last days were held as the most sacred. One of the ceremonies was the waving of fruit and leafy branches toward the four quarters of the earth, and the singing of hosannas. The dwelling in booths for the first seven days was once obligatory, but this is the practice which has most fallen into disuse. In this city, the Israelites who observe the days at all, do it by simply going to, and sitting in, a booth erected near the Synagogue, for such time as the devotional feeling of each may prompt.

LOCAL FREIGHT TARIFF.—The Oregon & California Railroad Co. has issued a pamphlet containing a local freight tariff which went into effect yesterday. The general directions, rules and conditions as to the shipment of freight, are fully and distinctly stated, together with instructions to freight agents and others. Articles of produce and merchandise are classified in 1st, 2d and 3d rates—with subdivisions of rates—and are charged according to class. Tables of special rates by car load are also given, showing cost of shipment from any station on the road to Portland, and also from one way station to another. These pamphlets, we suppose, will be distributed all along the road for the information both of employees and shippers. The printing was done by Coburn & McCabe, and is one of the handsomest jobs ever turned out here.

GOING TO SALEM.—After a successful and daily increasing practice of six weeks in this city in eye, ear and lung diseases, Dr. Aborn is going to Salem to-morrow to remain about ten or twelve days. The Doctor has testimonials from many persons here on whom he has effected cures. On his return he intends to open rooms permanently in this city.

OVERLAND PASSENGERS.—The following passengers en route for Portland, via Oregon & California Stage Company, passed Yreka on Saturday: C. A. Dolph, Mr. Wingham, L. Stringer, R. G. Reese, E. Epsey, W. Adams.

THE COLORED SCHOOL.—We are requested to say that a public meeting will be held this evening at the Zion A. M. E. Church on Third street to take into consideration the condition of the colored school of this city.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.—Mr. A. B. Richardson on Saturday sold lot 2, block 33, Couch's Addition, for $1,050, and one and one-half acres of land, near East Portland, for $1,100.

THE NATHAN TROUPE.—This dramatic Troupe, having played at Victoria, is coming up the Sound, en route to this city, intending to go to Salem to play during the State Fair.

HORSES SOLD AT AUCTION.—A large number of horses were sold at auction on Saturday by Mr. A. B. Richardson, at prices which were very low for the class of animals sold.

CARGO OF R. R. IRON DUE.—The Alice Graham with a cargo of railroad iron is now out nearly 140 days, and may, therefore, be looked for at any day.

GAME.—Of late our markets have been pretty well supplied with quail. They are, however, rather costly little chicks.

CONTINUES.—The revival at the Taylor street M. E. Church is still in progress.

A NEW FERRY BOAT AND LANDING.—We learn that the Railroad Co. has resolved to build a new ferry-boat, on a different plan, altogether, from the one now running. The landing on this side is to be reconstructed in such manner that the boat will land broadside on like any other steamer.

CARS OVER THE HARRISBURG BRIDGE.—We hear by private telegram that the locomotive crossed the Harrisburg bridge yesterday afternoon. It is expected that trains will run to Eugene by Saturday at the farthest.

A FANCY SKATIST.—We see it stated that as soon as Miss Carrie Moore shall conclude her present engagement at San Francisco, she will visit this city to give skating exhibitions at the pavilion.

THE CHINESE HABEAS CORPUS CASE.—This morning Judge Deady will hear and determine the habeas corpus case in which the Chinese parties heretofore mentioned are interested.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

HE DON'T WARRANT A CURE.—Many persons defer treatment of their case because they say Dr. Aborn "don't" warrant a cure. Is it expected of the family physician to warrant a cure before he is employed to treat a case? Dr. Aborn's success ought to be a sufficient guarantee to any one who is suffering from any disease which he treats to justify them in making an investment for a course of treatment.

Dr. Aborn is a gentleman skilled in his profession, with a knowledge and an experience which was not acquired without great expense and years of incessant practice, hence he cannot, no more than any other physician, afford to treat patients at his own expense.

Dr. Aborn, as may reasonably be expected, charges for his professional services and medicines. Those who have confidence in his skill and wish to place themselves under his care at such rates as will enable him to give them a proper course of treatment, he will gladly serve, while at the St. Charles Hotel or at Salem.

A PLEA FOR ADVERTISING SPECIALTIES IN MEDICINE.—Dr. Aborn, standing upon strict medical etiquette towards his medical brethren, never abases himself to speak ill of the fraternity, nor officiously engage in dissuading a patient from seeking advice from any physician that may be his choice. This being a free country, Dr. Aborn holds that a man has a right to consult whom he pleases, and to think and judge for himself, and form his own conclusions. Hence, if a patient consults him, and does not feel disposed to take his treatment, he does not volunteer gratuitous advice as to whom he should, or should not, apply. There is quite too much of this ungentlemanly conduct among the profession, but from which Dr. Aborn intends to hold himself, in the future as in the past, entirely aloof.

In reference to, and in defense of his course in advertising, Dr. Aborn feels justified in saying this much: that having devoted his entire time to the study and treatment of a few chronic diseases, and having attained a success unparalleled in their treatment, he would be false to humanity were he not to make these facts known. The simple fact that "quacks" and "humbugs" (so-called) do advertise, does not militate against the propriety of sound, scientific and successful practitioners likewise using the columns of the press.

Moreover, there are perhaps but few intelligent medical men who are unwilling to admit that there are quacks and humbugs in the profession of medicine, who are located too, and yet do not advertise thus openly. However, nearly every physician has his peculiar method of advertising himself. Surely it is legitimate to advertise a specialty in medicine, if honestly and honorably done, and especially if the advertiser is competent to treat such cases with unusual success—as it is to use the same means to bring into notice an improved and labor-saving agricultural instrument. By so doing, the specialist benefits suffering humanity, by informing them where they can be cured of their maladies that have perhaps for years or a life time resisted ordinary modes of treatment; and the mechanic perchance, relieves the husbandman of his burdens and lightens the toils of his helpmate, woman. Thus an intelligent and unprejudiced mind readily approves progress and improvement in everything.

GREAT SUCCESS—SUCCESS THE TEST OF MERIT.—The great success with which Dr. Aborn has met since his arrival in Portland, is truly wonderful—as has been witnessed by many of his patients—and visitors at the St. Charles Hotel. Many cases he has effected cures in a few moments; some cases in two or three days; others have required a week or two, while a few obstinate cases require a regular scientific course.

Although Dr. Aborn frequently effects a cure in a few days or weeks—even in many cases that have resisted the ordinary modes of treatment, yet it is unreasonable to expect that he should be so successful in all. Some cases may require weeks, months, or even a year's treatment to effect a radical cure, while in others the disease may have progressed so far as to render a thorough cure impossible; still, by persevering in Dr. Aborn's remedies, patients may confidently hope to have their sufferings greatly ameliorated and their lives considerably prolonged.

The advice so often gratuitously proffered to the afflicted, "to let their disease alone," has sacrificed many a valuable life, that might have been saved by timely and proper treatment. There is but one common sense view to be taken in this matter, and that is for the patient to consider whether he is not running a much greater risk that his disease will eventually prove fatal if alone, or go untreated, than by advancing a few dollars for a supply of Dr. Aborn's medicines, that have effected speedy and radical cures in so many of like character.

REAL ESTATE BROKERS IN SALEM.—Messrs. Jones & Patterson, of Salem, are in business as real estate brokers, insurance and collecting agents. They are gentlemen of energetic business habits, and we feel assured that any business entrusted to them will be attended to promptly and well.

PRESERVE YOUR PLANTS AND FLOWERS.—We call attention to the proposition of Mr. L. G. Pfunder, to store plants and flowers in his greenhouse during the winter. See his advertisement on second page.

AT J. O'NEIL & Co.'s, 95 First street, can be found the finest and largest stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods in the city. The celebrated Star Shirt, a full supply, and the Guanaco Umbrella, the latest and best article out to keep off the Oregon mist. A look through J. O'Neil & Co's stock will benefit those investing. They sell at marvelously low figures.

KOHN & FISHEL have received by the late steamers large invoices of clothing and gents furnishing, and they now have the largest and best assortment of goods in their line in the city. They sell low, and everybody can buy. Go to Kohn & Fishel's 91 Front street for bargains.

Throat Affections and Hoarseness.—All suffering from Irritation of the Throat and Hoarseness will be agreeably surprised at the almost immediate relief afforded by the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches." The demulcent ingredients allay pulmonary irritation; and after public speaking or singing, when the throat is wearied and weakened by too much exercise, their use will give renewed strength to the vocal organs.

PERSONAL.

Dr. J. A. Bonner of Idaho, Past Grand of the I. O. O. F. of that Territory, is in this city at the Cosmopolitan Hotel.

The Vancouver Register says that Mr. Garfielde, Delegate in Congress from Washington Territory, has lost the command of his voice from a long standing bronchial affection, and cannot speak above a whisper.

Mr. Joseph Knott has just come down from the Bohemia mines, bringing with him a quantity of gold bullion. He is satisfied that his mine will be remunerative.

Miss Susan B. Anthony, it is said, will return to this city shortly from her tour up the valley, and will then visit Olympia and other towns on Puget Sound.

Dr. Cardwell, formerly of this city, but who has been for a year or two post surgeon at Fort Klamath, has resigned that position and returned to this city on a visit. He thinks of settling for practice in Rogue River Valley.

Whitcomb's Asthma Remedy is a sure cure

An Unprotected System.

Do not fancy because you feel strong that you are impregnable to sickness. Whole neighborhoods are frequently prostrated at this season by malarious fevers. Vigorous muscles and strong sinews, broad shoulders and sound lungs, are no defence against the mephitic vapors of autumn. Frames which have withstood the summer heat may succumb now. Many an athletic man, whose family depends for its support on his industry, now lies prostrate, weak and helpless as a babe, under the periodical assaults of chills and fever, or bilious remittent fever. This could not be if all were wise enough to provide against such a contingency, by toning and fortifying the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This approved vegetable tonic is absolutely harmless, so that it is sheer folly not to take it as a safeguard at a season when diseases of the liver, the stomach, the bowels, and indeed all the internal organs are generally prevalent. To keep the system in order and insure health, or to put it in order when this precaution has been neglected, is the duty of every human being who values life. For both these purposes Hostetter's Bitters is designated, and it answers both. Petty local dealers are endeavoring, in many parts of the country, to substitute preparations made of impure and dangerous materials in its stead. Give them a wide berth. They are prepared by unskillful experimenters, who want to turn a penny at the expense of the public health.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, September 30, 1871.

Gold in New York, 114¾.

Currency, here, buying, 87c; selling, 89.

Steamer Montana, due Sunday night, is reported to have on from $150,000 to $200,000 in coin for our banks.

The steamer Ajax is to leave San Francisco for this port to-morrow (Sunday), and will be due Thursday night.

The Bullion in the Bank of England has decreased £2,407,000 within the last week.

Business for this week has been very active, but not more so than was expected during the Spring and Summer months, as the volume of business then was in excess of previous years. Our jobbers all give reports of very active demand at full rates for goods. Remittances are not as free as all were led to expect.

During the months of active competition by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and the transcontinental railway tariffs ruled low. Many articles of merchandise were shipped by rail in preference to other routes, and owing to the low rates of tariff ruling many goods could be disposed of at less rates in San Francisco and here than formerly ruled; but now owing to the advance in tariff, all descriptions of merchandise feel its effect, which will necessitate further advances in prices on the coast so as to meet the increased tariff. Whether the increased tariff applies to Chicago, St. Louis or Cincinnati is as yet a matter of doubt, but our impressions are that though the increased freights will not be as great as from New York, still there will be an increase in proportion to the length of the road. That the increased tariff will work a hardship on this coast, no one can for a moment doubt, as aside from making consumers pay just so much more for goods, it takes freight on certain articles, such as Wool, Hops, etc., which have heretofore been shipped East by rail and steamers at lower rates than will now rule, thus allowing purchasers to pay just so much more for each article shipped than they can hereafter. That this advance in tariff is shortsighted and something which all would naturally suppose men as successful as those having the transcontinental railroads in charge would not be guilty of doing. We append a table of the monthly earnings of the Central Pacific Railroad since January 1st to Sept. 1, 1871, and the corresponding earnings in 1870:

	(742 miles.)	(800 miles.)
January	$412,104	$524,450
February	394,176	481,065
March	488,337	678,870
April	633,768	856,260
May	703,719	917,700
	(800 miles.)
June	729,274	705,375
July	783,099	819,100
August	807,816	905,066
	$5,018,270	$5,867,983

Showing an increase of $849,700 in eight months. The increase in length of road is over routes that would not give as large an increase in earnings as the above shows. For the month of August [illegible] large shipments of Tea, etc., [illegible] The effect will be to work an injury to [illegible] a depreciation in the market rates of the stocks of the different roads running in connection generally known as the transcontinental railroads. The Central Pacific railroad was quoted on 'Change in New York Oct. 8, 1870, 90½ bid; May 12, 1871, 102 bid; Sept. 13, 1871, 102½ bid. In this connection we clip the following from the commercial letter from New York to the San Francisco Alta:

A careful examination warrants the opinion that the effect on the freighting business will be to benefit the sailing routes to some little extent. Should the present opposition between the trunk lines to Chicago continue, there is every probability that the present low rates of goods going forward for local consumption, by the short routes, will continue, even at the higher rates. But if a combination between the trunk lines be made, resulting in prices being advanced, [illegible] 20 per cent, of which there is little doubt, shippers will find that the railroad and steamers are available for the transportation of perishable goods only, or to meet the urgent demands of the San Francisco market for some particular article; and even at the increased cost of time and risk of transportation, they will prefer to keep up stocks of standard goods by the Horn route.

The advance in [illegible] will cause shipment of Teas, etc., to New York to be made by the Suez canal via Liverpool, and will stop large shipments which would go to the East via San Francisco from Australia and New Zealand, of Wool, etc.

The following we extract from late advices from England: "The more that the Wheat crop is tested by the only satisfactory means of arriving at a correct result, viz: by thrashing, the more convinced do we become that our crop is decidedly under an average. The quality of the grain is good; but further experiences may acquaint us of the fact that in consequence of the late season, and the anxiety caused by the threatening aspect of the weather, a large proportion of the crop has been stacked in such a [illegible] quickly amenable to variations of temperature. The farmers would unquestionably prefer to allow their produce to remain in the fields a few days [illegible] with somewhat frequent showers, and with damp nights, no advantage can be gained by adopting such a course at so late a period of the season. Should these remarks be correct, it would follow that when the wet season shall have set in, millers will find a scarcity of dry English produce, and the result will be that good foreign Wheat will meet with a ready sale at remunerative prices. There is no one expects to see lower prices for Wheat. Although the stocks here and at the French outports are large—the stock at [illegible] being 426,000 quarters, (2,044,800 [illegible]) and that France will be under the necessity of importing largely during the next twelve months. The large [illegible] no [illegible] on the part of millers, who, recognizing the fact that our present prices are sufficient high to attract the supplies we require, are unwilling to [illegible] The [illegible] Wheat laden vessels afloat is 352 against 306 last year."

Merchandise Report.

WHEAT—Our telegraphic dispatches just to hand gives advices of exporters entering the San Francisco market and paying from $2 75@2 82½ per cental. This action on the part of exporters, unless forced to purchase so as to [illegible] cargoes of [illegible] charter, would indicate a confidence in the future. We are satisfied as yet the [illegible] of Trade have not completed their table so as to know the supply obtainable from [illegible] country. On Tuesday or Wednesday next we [illegible] probably advices, as [illegible] is the regular sales day. We note a further advance to-day by [illegible] One at $2 30 per cental. We quote market [illegible] per cental for shipping lots, a [illegible] can be placed at a slight advance in the above for shipment to California.

FLOUR—San Francisco millers have advanced prices there from [illegible] Owing to the probability of higher prices ruling, which will virtually exclude shipping to China, it will be difficult to find a market. We quote market firm at $7 per bbl for extra; $6 75@6 75 for superfine. The telegraph informs us that the Ringleader sailed [illegible] for China, having on $96,000 worth, and the steamer Great Republic took out 2,700 bbls.

POTATOES—Receipts very free to-day, and in consequence [illegible] were liberal with few buyers except at lower rates. Sales [illegible] to-day at from $1 12½@1 35 ℔ bushel.

EGGS—Prices unchanged, if anything a shade firmer. Fresh selected command quick 37½ cts. ℔ doz.

OILS—San Francisco advices give market for outside brands as firmer.

DRY GOODS AND CLOTHING—Advices from the East give market ½ ct. ℔ yard higher (so we are informed) on prints. Owing to the advance in tariff by the Overland Railroad and the P. M. S. Co., the additional cost amounts to ½ ct. per yard, and on some Woolens, etc a shade more. So we expect to note a further advance in the market very soon of not less than ½ ct. per yard all around.

European and Oregon Land Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

Sir,—You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of ——, State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."
